Analysis of Middle East Social Systems and Inner Conflict Potentials:

History of Iran and Iranian Social System (Social and Religious Groups, Political System, particular Shia topics concerning the relation to Sunna)

Contemporary History of Turkey (1850 – 2000) and Turkish Social System (Social and Religious Groups)

Contemporary History of Egypt (1850 – 2000) and Egypt Social System (Social and Religious Groups)

This analysis aims to estimate the possibility of a major Sunni - Shia Clash and shall give possibilities to avoid this.

Deeper Analysis of Relationship between Islamic Countries and Imperial American Power

-> Analysis of American problems and their policy towards Islamic countries according to "Emanuel Todd, USA-Ein Nachruf"

The strategical options for Islamic Sunni Countries

1. Seeking a strategical pact with Shia countries to make one front against American aggression (Turkey-Egypt-Syria-Iran-Irak against USA)
2. Seeking a pact with Western Countries against Shia „bad“ brother countries (Turkey-Egypt-Western Countries against Iran)

Learning from success of Salahuddin

Salahuddin was good and tolerant to Shia population in Egypt and so it was possible to unite Egypt and Syria one hand to concentrate the energy against the crusaders.

Learning from Bismarcks policy and Wilhelm II. mistakes

To isolate the real / number one enemy it is necessary to have good relations to all other actors.

Bismarck had seeked good relationship to all European countries to isolate France after 1871.
